

- When the user selects a box, it expands to reveal the content for that box.
- Below is an example of the content that will fill an "answer" box.

CLOSE ANSWER

PROMPT THAT LED USER HERE
Accessibility versus mobility

TOPIC SENTENCE(S)
Transportation is increasingly important for urban economic growth and for the opportunity of residents. The current mobility model overlooks accessibility to the detriment ...

ANSWER BODY
Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Suspendisse sit amet ante nec enim rhoncus dapibus id quis dui. Links to blog posts and other project content should be embedded in this text. cursus, at sollicitudin nisi volutpat. Curabitur vitae sollicitudin diam.

GRAPHIC (OPTIONAL)
Can be placed in main body of answer or in "side rail."

Aenean dignissim lacinia est, a vestibulum mi eleifend eget. Sed sollicitudin congue LINK. Praesent bibendum arcu eu placerat finibus. Vivamus semper elementum venenatis. In elementum tellus sit amet magna bibendum, ut bibendum nisl congue. Proin finibus dui viverra LINK gravida, et faucibus felis LINK. Nam gravida ipsum quis velit tristique sollicitudin. Nam tempor leo eget lectus aliquet volutpat. Integer luctus, metus facilisis dictum aliquet, quam elit posuere odio LINK.

Curabitur ac nulla id metus hendrerit interdum. Nunc tincidunt, tellus vitae rutrum ultrices, magna libero ultricies purus, id facilisis dui urna nec lectus. Morbi congue vel eros at accumsan. Aliquam convallis sodales sem. Ut ut enim urna. Quisque a varius justo. Integer sagittis dapibus sem. □

LINK TO FOUNDATIONAL RESOURCE

Tomer and Kane (2015) said this, and this, and this. For an in depth understanding of this topic, see this paper. It would be best to just include one link here.

NEXT QUESTION/PROMPT
Assessing Accessibility →

SIDE RAIL (OPTIONAL)

DATA POINTS

Data point A

314

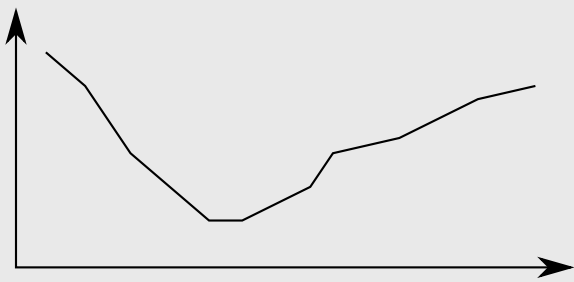

Data point B

2

Data point C

72

GRAPHIC

Questions
Do we need to cap the answers to a certain word count? Should these answer boxes be scrollable?